

The first part of the book is a history of the church in this country from the first settlement to the present time. It is written in a plain and simple style, and contains many interesting facts and anecdotes. The second part is a description of the present state of the church, and the progress of the gospel in this country. It is written in a more elevated style, and contains many beautiful passages.
 The third part is a collection of prayers and hymns, which are well adapted to the use of churches and private families.
 The fourth part is a collection of sermons, which are well adapted to the use of churches and private families. The fifth part is a collection of letters, which are well adapted to the use of churches and private families.
 The sixth part is a collection of hymns, which are well adapted
 private families. The seventh part is a collection of prayers, which
 churches and private families.
 The eighth part is a collection of sermons, which are well adapted
 private families. The ninth part is a collection of letters, which
 churches and private families.
 The tenth part is a collection of
 private families.
