Quid in Christo Pater sincere — et Quaesti sunt nobis Cives Cracovienses, quod Venerabilis Joannes Salomon Canonicus Cracoviensis, veniens in Controversiam, cum Consanguineis suis ratione successionis, in Domas et bona sua Paterna, nitatur illos extra ad Judicium Spirituale evocare, quia verò eadem Domus et bona, sunt Juri Ci-vili subdita, postulamus à B^{de} Vestra, contineve illum velit, ne Cives nostros tra-hat ad istas Difficultates, Juris alterius.
Nam nos, id non permittimus, volentes, ut inter subditos nostros, unicuique Jus suum servetur. — Cupimus Vestram B^{de} bene valere — Dado: Vilno —

The first part of the book is a history of the country from the first settlement to the present time. It is written in a plain and simple style, and contains many interesting particulars of the country, its soil, its climate, its productions, and its inhabitants.
 The second part of the book is a description of the country, and of the manners and customs of the people. It is written in a more descriptive style, and contains many interesting particulars of the
 productions, and its inhabitants.
 The third part of the book is a description of the country, and
 productions, and its inhabitants.
